

Mini Birth Stone Report

» created by Shakti Carola Navran

Prepared for: mp

Born: December 15, 1965 at 03:52 PM in San Leandro California

YOUR PERSONAL LOVE GEM for Your Venus

• Your Venus stone will enhance the flowering of your heart and help you find greater self-love, serenity and appreciation for life.

Venus is the Roman goddess of love and beauty. This is a most sensuous planet, associated with all of our passion and feelings around romance, sex, and marriage. Venus represents your heart and longing for intimacy and serenity. In relation to beauty, Venus is associated with harmony, balance, and all the arts.

Gemstones represent the highest balanced frequency embedded in the physical world because of their specific crystal structure, their chemical composition, light reflection and color. As with homeopathy, we make use of the same principle to help create balance.

• Your Challenge -

The goal for your soul is to first find serenity and peace with your own needs and desires; then the balance with your partner will follow more easily. Compromising either too much or too little can become a problem in your relationship.

You came here to open your heart to love and to learn to be happy and joyful. The right stone with a strong Venus signature, your LOVE GEM can teach you in all matters of the heart.

Healing Gems work their magic, even as small stones, when you bring them into your energy field. This is the basis of healing with gemstones and energy medicine. Simply by wearing a favorable gemstone on your body you are able to influence your energy field in ways that you intentionally choose.

Your personal Medicine Gem is one of the best stones steering you deeply into “the flow of the heart”. By healing old emotional wounds in your heart, your LOVE GEM can help it to flower into the highest expression of true love.

Your Venus is in Aquarius and in house 9; your stone is

Violet Sapphire

Sapphire belongs to the corundum family. The red variety is called Ruby and all other color variations are called Sapphire. There are black, pink, violet, green, yellow, and orange Sapphires. Each color of the rainbow touches us in a different way.

With a hardness of 9 on the Mohs' scale, the Sapphire is the second hardest stone after the Diamond, making it a very durable stone and excellent for wedding bands and a lifetime of wear. The color of the Violet Sapphire and its unusually high vibrational frequency come from Vanadium, a soft and ductile gray-white metal.

• The Journey Towards the End of the Rainbow

The rainbow symbolizes beauty and the treasure waiting for us at its end. Discovering that treasure always involves a journey. At some point in your journey you might realize that the journey itself is the goal. The journey is always happening in the Now, and the Now is all there is. The beautiful family of the Sapphires can help you to live in the Now, to enjoy yourself as you are, to make peace with yourself and your life.

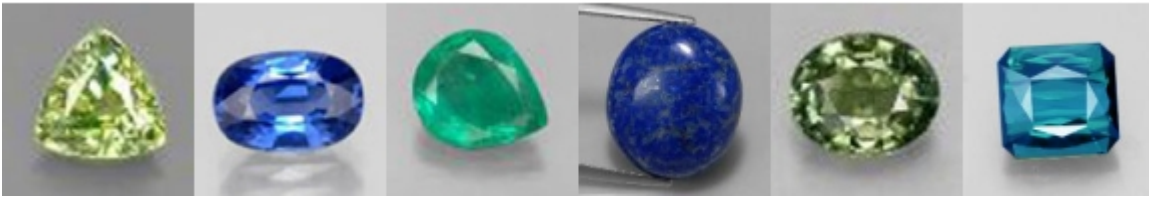

• Higher States of Consciousness

The Violet Sapphire assists you in your meditation, helping you to connect with your supreme being and enter into a higher state of consciousness. This stone satisfies your longing for the divine. It radiates a crisp, clear energy that cuts through what is peripheral and unimportant to connect you with your own inner wisdom and objective knowing. This wisdom is different from the accumulation of academic knowledge; this is a deep intuitive knowledge of truth that does not require external validation.

The Violet Sapphire tunes your antenna into that deep internal wisdom and aids the flow of inspiration into your conscious mind so you can use it for your creative endeavors.

This is the 'Divine Fool' dancing the dance of life and enjoying every step of it.

YOUR WISHFULL FILLING GEM for Your Jupiter

• In the old astrology Jupiter was called the BRINGER OF FORTUNE because of his ability to show you where to find meaning and fulfillment in your life. Your Jupiter stone is your lucky stone and will help you achieve joyful success in many different areas.

Jupiter represents the adventurer, the gypsy or the philosopher. In astrology he relates to your value system and beliefs, ethics, and morality. Those orientations are connected to higher perspectives offered through religion, philosophy, the search for meaning, and ultimately decide how you conduct your life.

Gemstones represent the highest balanced frequency embedded in the physical world because of their specific crystal structure, their chemical composition, light reflection and color. As with homeopathy, we make use of the same principle to help create balance.

• Your Challenge -

The challenge for you is in living your fullest potential possible. You learn to expand by taking a chance outside your habitually limited ways of living your life in order to reap the success of growing into the life of your dreams and visions.

The right stone with a strong Jupiter signature, your LUCKY GEM will help you to grow and live a larger life, to move beyond limitations, and to expand in all ways, including in your thinking, your connection to God, and even your finances.

Healing Gems work their magic, even as small stones, when you bring them into your energy field. This is the basis of healing with gemstones and energy medicine. Simply by wearing a favorable gemstone on your body you are able to influence your energy field in ways that you intentionally choose.

Your personal Medicine Gem is one of the best stones to support you on this journey as this is the stone of WISHFULL FILLING energy, helping it flow unencumbered by obstacles.

Your Jupiter is in Gemini and in house 1; your stone is

Blue Sapphire

The Rainbow Gem

The name “Sapphire” comes from the Greek word for “blue.” Sapphire is one of the stone families that occurs in all the colors of the rainbow. Each color touches us in a different way. Sapphires are especially powerful if different colors are set together in a piece of jewelry.

The rainbow symbolizes beauty and the treasure waiting for us at its end.

Discovering that treasure always involves a journey. At some point in your journey you might realize that the journey itself is the goal. The journey is always happening in the Now, and the Now is all there is. The beautiful family of the Sapphires can help you to live in the Now, to enjoy yourself as you are, to make peace with yourself and your life.

Building Faith in Life & Peace of Mind

The Blue Sapphire varies from light blue to dark blue. The most expensive color is cornflower blue.

- The Blue Sapphire brings us peace of mind. It helps to relax anxiety-driven thoughts by helping us to look at situations from a higher perspective. It helps us to find meaning in the situation we are dealing with and to gain faith in the goodness of life.
- If you can live your life from a place of trust in life, that everything is happening for a reason and is part of a bigger plan even if you cannot see it right now, you will find peace. You can relax by putting your fears and worries in the hands of that Higher Force, however you choose to call it.
- He is responsible and reliable and helps you to follow through on your commitments. He gives you the virtue of Patience.
- You may also be able to find a Star Sapphire who is a very special treasure with the integrating love of Venus, the feminine.
- Sapphire is known as a MANIFESTER bringing in sufficient energy to make sure you act on your dreams and visions, bringing them to life.

Copyright 2012 by Shakti Carola Navran ~ 1135 Makawao Ave, #310, Makawao, HI 96768 ~ All rights reserved.

Phone: 808.878.8182 ~ My thanks for the provision of gem photos go to GemSelect.

For more information about Astrology & Gems